A kindergarten pupil told his teacher he'd found a cat. She asked if it was dead or alive. "Dead," she was informed. "How do you know?", she asked. "Because I pissed in his ear and it didn't move," said the child innocently. "You did WHAT?!?", the teacher squealed in surprise. "You know," explained the boy, "I leaned over and went 'pssst' and he didn't move."

Two antarcticans were walking in the woods when they came upon some tracks.

The first said, "You know, those look like deer tracks." The other said, "No, silly, those are moose tracks."

They were still arguing about it when a train hit them.

Did You Know?

The word tomato came from the Nahuatl Aztec word, "tomatl".

Tomatoes, as everyone knows, are fruits not vegetables.

Fewer people know that avocados, pumpkins, coconuts, cucumbers, peas, beans [green as well as all other beans], peppers, corn, aubergines, squash and all kinds of nuts are also fruits.

Tomatoes were originally yellow: hence the Italian name pomodoro, "golden apple". Red tomatoes came later, discovered in Mexico by two Jesuit priests who brought their seeds back to Europe.

A world without tomatoes is like a string quartet without violins. - Laurie Colwin

Supposedly Ronald Reagan didn't eat a tomato for 70 years. His dislike of tomatoes sprang from a childhood prank. He had been given what he thought was an apple, but when he took a bite realized it was a tomato. Tomato juice is the official state beverage of Ohio, USA. There are at least 10,000 varieties of tomatoes.

Tomatoes are a natural source of the antioxidant "lycopene", which may help prevent heart disease. In this regard, researchers have learned that cooked tomatoes are better for you than raw.

The heaviest tomato ever, weighing 3.51 kg (7 lb 12 oz), was of the cultivar 'Delicious', grown by Gordon Graham of Edmond, Oklahoma in 1986

The Top 10 Rules of Life

These may sound funny, but they're quite true (especially #10).

1. Never give yourself a haircut when drinking.
2. You need only two tools: WD-40 and duct tape. If it doesn't move and it should, use WD-40. If it moves and shouldn't, use duct tape.
3. Everyone seems normal until you get to know them.
4. When you make a mistake, make amends immediately -- it's easier to eat crow while it's still warm.
5. The best advice that your mother ever gave you was, "Go! You might meet somebody!"
6. If they say you are too good for him/her, believe them.
7. Learn to pick your battles; ask yourself, "Will this matter one year from now? One month? One week? One day?"
8. Never pass up an opportunity to pee.
9. Living well really is the best revenge. Being miserable because of a bad or former relationship may mean the other person was right about you.
10. You can't demand something as a "right" unless you are willing to fight to death to defend everyone else's right to the same thing.

"aubergines" are eggplants - just in case you didn't know. (see back page about tomatoes)

Junk is something you've kept for years and throw away three weeks before you need it.

The massive "tomato tree" growing inside the Walt Disney World Resort's experimental greenhouses in Lake Buena Vista, Florida may be the largest single tomato plant in the world. The plant has been recognized as a Guinness World Record Holder, with a harvest of more than 32,000 tomatoes and a total weight of 522 kg (1,150 lb)

Lemons contain more sugar than strawberries

Onions, asparagus, daffodils, yams, hyacinths, garlic, leeks, tulips, chives and the Joshua tree of California [which can grow to be 40 feet tall] are all types of lily.

What Is a Grandparent?

Mrs Margaret Mather is a Primary school teacher; she has recorded the answers she was given in a class discussion.

Grandparents are a lady and a man who have no little children of their own. They like other peoples.

A grandfather is a man and a grandmother is a lady.

Grandparents don't have to do anything except be there when we come to see them. They are so old they shouldn't play hard or run. It is good if they drive us to the shops and give us money. When they take us for walks, they slow down past things like pretty leaves and caterpillars.

They show us and talk to us about the colours of the flowers and also why we shouldn't step on "cracks."

They don't say, 'Hurry up.' Usually grandmothers are fat but not too fat to tie your shoes.

They wear glasses and funny underwear.

They can take their teeth and gums out.

They have to answer questions like 'Why isn't God married?' and 'How come dogs chase cats?'

When they read to us, they don't skip. They don't mind if we ask for the same story over again.

Everybody should try to have a grandmother, especially if you don't have television because they are the only grownups who like to spend time with us.

They know we should have snack time before bed time, and they say prayers with us and kiss us even when we've acted bad.

A WOMAN'S RANDOM THOUGHTS

1) If you love something, set it free. If it comes back, it will always be yours. If it doesn't come back, it was never yours to begin with. But, if it just sits in your living room, messes up your stuff, eats your food, uses your telephone, takes your money, and doesn't appear to realize that you had set it free..... You either married it or gave birth to it.

2) Reason to smile: Every 7 minutes of every day, someone in an aerobics class pulls a hamstring.

3) My mind not only wanders, it sometimes leaves completely.

4) The best way to forget all your troubles is to wear tight shoes.

5) The nice part about living in a small town: When you don't know what you're doing, someone else always does.

6) Just when I was getting used to yesterday, along came today.

7) Sometimes I think I understand everything, then I regain consciousness.

8) Amazing! You hang something in your closet for a while and it shrinks two sizes!

9) They keep telling us to get in touch with our bodies. Mine isn't all that communicative but I heard from it the other day after I said, "Body, how'd you like to go to the six o'clock class in vigorous toning?" Clear as a bell my body said, "Listen fatty do it and die."

10) I read this article that said the typical symptoms of stress are eating too much, impulse buying, and driving too fast. Are they kidding? That's my idea of a perfect day.

Manuel Oliveira owned an ice cream shop in Mérida, Venezuela; and he reported that he sold 567 flavours, including onion, chilli, beer, eggplant [aubergine], smoked trout, spaghetti and parmesan, chicken with rice, and spinach. He said some flavours fail; he once abandoned avocado ice cream, and tossed out 99 pounds of it, because it wasn't smooth enough.

A balanced diet is a cookie in each hand.

Me: Doctor, my leg is talking to me!

Doc: How do you mean?

Me: I'll show you.

Walking up and down my leg starts:

Leg: Give me some money. Give me some money. Give me some money.

Doc: Ah, I know what's up.

Me: What? What?

Doc: It's broke.

One day, a woman walks into a dentist's office and asks how much it will cost to extract wisdom teeth.

"Eighty dollars," the dentist says.

"That's a ridiculous amount," the woman says. "Isn't there a cheaper way?"

"Well," the dentist says, "if you don't use an anesthetic, I can knock the price down to $60."

"That's still too expensive," the woman says.

"Okay," says the dentist. "If I save on anesthesia and simply rip the teeth out with a pair of pliers, I can knock the price down to $20."

"Nope," moans the woman, "it's still too much."

"Well," says the dentist, scratching his head, "if I let one of my students do it, I suppose I can knock the price down to $10."

"Marvelous," says the woman, "book my husband for next Tuesday!"
