A Sunday School teacher began her lesson with a question. "Boys and girls, what do we know about God?"

A hand shot up in the air. "He is an artist!" said the kindergarten boy.

"Really?! How do you know?" the teacher asked.

"You know - 'Our Father, who does art in Heaven...'"

List of mixed metaphors from college student papers:

- "He swept the rug under the carpet."
- "She's burning the midnight oil at both ends."
- "It was so cold last night I had to throw another blanket on the fire."
- "It's time to step up to the plate and cut the mustard."
- "She's robbing Peter to pay the piper."
- "He's up a tree without a paddle."
- "Beware my friend...you are skating on hot water."
- "Keep your ear to the grindstone."
- "Sometimes you've gotta stick your neck out on a limb."
- "Some people sail through life on a bed of roses like a knife slicing through butter."

If electricity comes from electrons does it mean morality comes from morons?

How can a slim chance and a fat chance be the same, while a wise man and a wise guy are opposites?

Martin arrived at Sunday school late. Miss Walter, his teacher, knew that Martin was usually very punctual so she asked him if anything was wrong.

Martin replied no, that he had been going fishing but his dad told him that he needed to go to church.

Miss Walter was very impressed and asked the lad if his dad had explained to him why it was more important to go to church than to go fishing?

Martin replied, "Yes he did. Dad said he didn't have enough bait for both of us."

The bandage was wound around the wound.
 The farm was used to produce produce.
 The dump was so full that it had to refuse more refuse.
 We must polish the Polish furniture.
 He could lead if he would get the lead out.
 The soldier decided to desert his dessert in the desert.
 Since there is no time like the present, he thought it was time to present the present.
 A bass was painted on the head of the bass drum.
 When shot at, the dove dove into the bushes.
 I did not object to the object.
 The insurance was invalid for the invalid.

Resume Blunders
 How bad a mistake can you make on your resume? Here are some real-life examples:
 "My intensity and focus are at inordinately high levels, and my ability to complete projects on time is unspeakable."
 "Education: Curses in liberal arts, curses in computer science, curses in accounting."
 "Instrumental in ruining entire operation for a Midwest chain store."
 "Personal: Married, 1992 Chevrolet."
 "I have an excellent track record, although I am not a horse."
 "I am a rabid typist."
 "Created a new market for pigs by processing, advertising and selling a gourmet pig mail order service on the side."
 "Exposure to German for two years, but many words are not appropriate for business."
 "Proven ability to track down and correct errors."
 "Personal interests: Donating blood. 15 gallons so far."
 "I have become completely paranoid, trusting completely nothing and absolutely no one."
 "References: None, I've left a path of destruction behind me."
 "Strengths: Ability to meet deadlines while maintaining composer."
 "Don't take the comments of my former employer too seriously, they were unappreciative beggars and slave drivers."
 "My goal is to be a meteorologist. But since I possess no training in meteorology, I suppose I should try stock brokerage."
 "I procrastinate--especially when the task is unpleasant."
 "I am loyal to my employer at all costs...Please feel free to respond to my resume on my office voicemail."
 "Qualifications: No education or experience."
 "Disposed of $2.5 billion in assets."
 "Accomplishments: Oversight of entire department."
 "Extensive background in accounting. I can also stand on my head!"
 Cover letter: "Thank you for your consideration. Hope to hear from you shortly!"

Ladies and gentlemen, hobos and tramps,
 Bug-eyed mosquitoes and bowlegged ants!
 I'm about to tell you a story I've never heard before,
 So pull up a chair and sit on the floor.
 Admission is free, so pay at the door.
 One fine day, in the middle of the night,
 two, dead boys got up to fight.
 Back to back, they faced each other,
 drew their swords and shot each other.
 A deaf policeman heard the noise,
 and saved the lives of the two dead boys.
 If you don't believe my lies are true,
 ask the blind man, he saw it too!

Tears : The hydraulic force by which masculine will-power is defeated by feminine water power.

If Wal-Mart is lowering prices every day, how come nothing is free yet?

An elephant was drinking out of a river one day, when he spotted a turtle asleep on a log. So, he ambled on over and kicked it clear across the river.

"What did you do that for?" Asked a passing giraffe.

"Because I recognized it as the same turtle that took a nip out of my trunk 53 years ago."

"Wow, what a memory" commented the giraffe.

"Yes," said the elephant, "turtle recall".

At a local coffee bar, a young woman was expounding on her idea of the perfect mate to some of her friends.

"The man I marry must be a shining light amongst company. He must be musical. Tell jokes. Sing. And stay home at night!"

An old granny overheard and spoke up, "Honey, if that's all you want, get a TV!"

Seeing a young man pitching hay and Minister remarked: "You look hot, my son," said the cleric. "why don't you rest a moment, and I'll give you a hand."

"No thanks," said the young man.

"My father wouldn't like it."

"Don't be silly," the minister said.

"Everyone is entitled to a break. Come and have a drink of water."

Again the young man protested that his father would be upset. Losing his patience, the clergyman said, "Your father must be a real slave driver. Tell me where I can find him and I'll give him a piece of my mind!"

"Well," replied the young farmer, "he's under the load of hay."

Miss Jones had been giving her second-grade students a lesson on science. She had explained about magnets and showed how they would pick up nails and other bits of iron.

Now it was question time, and she asked, "My name begins with the letter 'M' and I pick up things. What am I?"

Little Johnny in the front row proudly said, "You're a mother!"

Intoxication: Euphoria at getting a tax refund, which lasts until you realize it was your money to start with.

Why do they call it "common sense" when it's so rare?

Trying to do my share for the environment, I set up a recycling basket at my church and posted above it this suggestion: "Empty water bottles here."

I should have been a little more specific, because when I went to check it later, I didn't find any bottles in it. But it was full of water.

A policeman caught a nasty little boy with a penknife in one hand and a squirrel in the other.

"Now listen here," the policeman said, "Whatever you do to that poor, defenseless creature I shall personally do to you"

"In that case," said the boy, "I'll kiss it on the forehead and let it go"

The reason a dog has so many friends is that he wags his tail instead of his tongue

A married couple in their early 60s were out celebrating their 35th wedding anniversary in a quiet, romantic little restaurant.

Suddenly, a tiny yet beautiful fairy appeared on their table and said, "For being such an exemplary married couple and for being faithful to each other for all this time, I will grant you each one wish."

"Ooh, I want to travel around the world with my darling husband," said the wife. The fairy moved her magic wand and, in a flash of blinding light, two first class tickets for the Queen Mary II luxury liner appeared in her hands.

Now it was the husband's turn. He thought for a moment and said: "Well, this is all very romantic, but an opportunity like this only occurs once in a lifetime, so, I'm sorry, my love, but my wish is to have a wife 30 years younger than me."

The wife and the fairy were deeply disappointed, but a deal is a deal, so the fairy made a circle with her magic wand and, in a flash of blinding light, the husband became 92 years old.

The moral: Men might be ungrateful idiots, but fairies are... female.

All Champagnes are sparkling wines, but not all sparkling wines are Champagnes. For something to be a true Champagne, it must come from a certain area of France, the mere 70,000 acres called Champagne.

If practice makes perfect & nobody's perfect, why practice?
