"It says here that you'd prefer someone with regular bowel movements..Does it matter if they're involuntary ?"

Kev and Bill were talking one day. 'My wife asked me to buy organic vegetables from the greengrocer's,' said Kevin. 'So were you able to find some?' enquired Bill.

'Well when I got to the shop, I asked the manager, 'These vegetables are for my wife. Have they been sprayed with any poisonous chemicals?'' Kevin continued, 'The shopkeeper told me, 'No, you'll have to do that yourself.'

The Weather Channel, the Atlanta-based U.S. TV service (not to be confused with The Weather Network, based at Oakville, Ont.), proposes that major winter storms have names, similar to hurricanes and tropical storms. Unlike summer weather events such as tornadoes and thunderstorms, winter storms "occur on a time and space scale that is similar to tropical systems" and could be more easily referred to by a name.

"The fact is," the channel says, "a storm with a name is easier to follow, which will mean fewer surprises and more preparation."

The Indians asked their Chief in autumn if the winter was going to be cold or not. Not really having an answer, the chief replies that the winter was going to be cold and that the members of the village were to collect wood to be prepared.

Being a good leader, he then went to the next phone booth and called the National Weather Service and asked, "Is this winter to be cold?"

The man on the phone responded, "This winter was going to be quite cold indeed."

So the Chief went back to speed up his people to collect even more wood to be prepared.

A week later he called the National Weather Service again, "Is it going to be a very cold winter?"

"Yes", the man replied, "its going to be a very cold winter."

So the Chief goes back to his people and orders them to go and find every scrap of wood they can find.

Two weeks later he calls the National Weather Service again: "Are you absolutely sure that the winter is going to be very cold?"

"Absolutely," the man replies, "the Indians are collecting wood like crazy!"

"Congratulations my boy!" said the groom's uncle. "I'm sure you'll look back and remember today as the happiest day of your life."

"But I'm not getting married until tomorrow," protested his nephew.

"I know," replied the uncle. "That's exactly what I mean."

Who are these kids and why are they calling me Mom?

October 18 is "St. Luke's Little Summer," traditionally a period of summer-like days that occurs around this time, named to honor the saint's feast day.

To keep from being forgotten, St. Luke presented us with some golden days to cherish before the coming of winter—or so the story goes.

Some folks call this Indian summer, but that officially occurs between November 11 and November 20.

Our winter forecast predicts big chills for much of the U.S. Temperatures will be much colder than last year from Texas and the Dakotas eastward, while the Great Salt Lake and areas from El Paso to Detroit to Virginia Beach should brace for heavy snowfall. In Canada, temperatures will be colder everywhere except for the northern Maritimes and western British Columbia. Snowfall will be below normal in central Canada but above normal in most of the east and west.

A teacher was finishing up a lesson on the joys of discovery and the importance of curiosity. "Where would we be today," she asked, "if no one had ever been curious?"

One child quietly spoke up from the back of the room. "Still in the Garden of Eden?"

A couple goes to an art gallery. They find a picture of a naked women with only her privates covered with leaves. The wife doesn't like it and moves on but the husband keeps looking. The wife asks: "What are you waiting for?" The husband replies: "Autumn."

Life is like an onion.
You peel it off one layer at a time;
And sometimes you weep. ~

The Coffee Lover's Prayer
 Caffeine is my shepherd; I shall not doze.
 It maketh me to wake in green pastures:
 It leadeth me beyond the sleeping masses.
 It restoreth my buzz:
 It leadeth me in the paths of consciousness for its name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of addiction,
 I will fear no Equal®
 For thou art with me;
 thy cream and thy sugar,
 they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a carafe before me in the presence of Thyne Starbucks;
 Thou anointest my day with pep; my mug runneth over.
 Surely richness and taste shall follow me
 all the days of my life;
 and I will dwell in the House of Mocha forever.

There was once a wife so jealous that when her husband came home one night and she couldn't find hairs on his jackets she yelled at him, "Great, so now you're cheating on me with a bald woman!"

The next night, when she didn't smell any perfume, she yelled again by saying, "She's not only bald, but she's too cheap to buy any perfume!"

Viruses are by far the most abundant biological entities on Earth and they outnumber all the others put together. They infect all types of cellular life including animals, plants, bacteria and fungi.

The Haircut

A young man had just gotten his driving permit. He asked his father, who was a minister, if they could discuss his use of the car.
 His father said to him, "I'll make a deal with you. You bring your grades up, study your bible a little, and get your hair cut, then we will talk about it."
 A month later the young man came back and again asked his father if they could discuss his use of the car.
 His father said, "Son, I'm real proud of you. You have brought your grades up, you've studied your bible diligently, but you didn't get a hair cut!"
 The young man waited a moment and replied, "You know dad, I've been thinking about that. You know Samson had long hair, Moses had long hair, Noah had long hair, and even Jesus had long hair."
 His father replied, "Yes son, and they walked everywhere they went!"

1. Only in America.....can a pizza get to your house faster than an ambulance.
2. Only in America.....are there handicap parking places in front of a skating rink.
3. Only in America.....do drugstores make the sick walk all the way to the back of the store to let their prescriptions while healthy people can buy cigarettes at the front.
4. Only in America.....do people order double cheeseburgers, large fries, and a diet coke.
5. Only in America.....do banks leave both doors open and then chain the pens to the counters.
6. Only in America.....do we leave cars worth thousands of dollars in the driveway and put our useless junk in the garage.
7. Only in America.....do we use answering machines to screen calls and then have call waiting so we won't miss a call from someone we didn't want to talk to in the first place.
8. Only in America.....do we buy hot dogs in packages of ten and buns in packages of eight.
9. Only in America.....do we use the word 'politics' to describe the process so well: 'Poli' in Latin meaning 'many' and 'tics' meaning 'bloodsucking creatures'.
10. Only in America.....do they have drive-up ATM machines with Braille lettering.

An Irishman was sitting in a bar, feeling the ache in his leg from a war wound, when he noticed Jesus was sitting several seats down, nursing a beer. "Hey," he said to the barman, "is that Jesus down there?"
 The bartender nodded, so the Irishman told him to give Jesus an Irish whiskey, on his tab.
 The next patron to come in was an ailing Italian with a hunched back who moved very slowly. He shuffled up to the barstool and asked for a glass of Chianti. He also looked down the bar and asked if that was Jesus sitting at the end of the bar. The bartender nodded, so the Italian said to give Him a glass of Chianti too.
 The third patron to enter the bar was a redneck, who swaggered into the bar and hollered, "Barkeep, set me up a cold one! Hey, is that God's Boy down there...?" The barkeep nodded, so the redneck told him to give Jesus a cold one too.
 As Jesus got up to leave, he walked over to the Irishman and touched him and said, "For your kindness, you are healed!" The Irishman felt the strength come back to his leg, so he got up and danced a jig out the door. Jesus touched the Italian and said "For your kindness, you are healed!" The Italian felt his back straighten, so he raised his hands above his head and did a flip out the door. Jesus walked toward the redneck.
 The redneck jumped back. "Don't touch me!" he screamed. "I'm on disability!"

Mount Everest is one whopping big mountain, but is it the tallest in the world? In fact it is not. A mountain is highest in regard to how far it soars above sea level. But technically it is tallest from base to summit. And Mauna Kea kills it at being the tallest.

A California state trooper pulled over a driver who ran a stop sign. "C'mon, Officer. I slowed down, didn't I?" argued the driver.

"But you must come to a complete stop at the sign," said the trooper.

"'Stop.' 'Slow down.' What's the difference, really?" quibbled the driver.

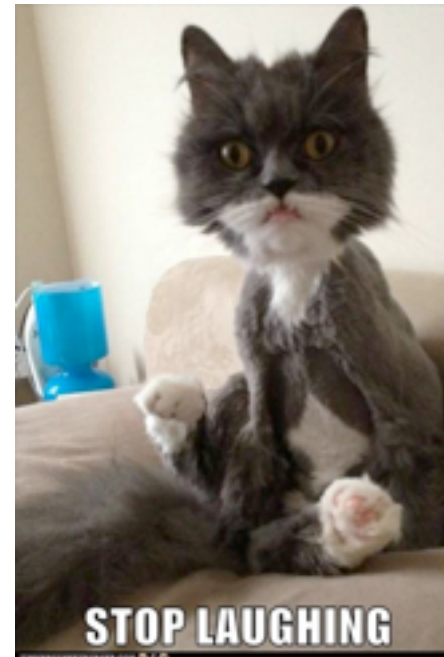

The cop was so irritated that he whipped out his billy club and started hitting the man's arm with it, shouting, "Well, do you want me to stop or slow down?!"

People who have an hour to spare often like to spend it with someone who doesn't.

There are three types of people in this world. Those that make things happen, those that watch things happen, and those that wonder what happened.

"What the world needs is more geniuses with humility, there are so few of us left."
