Pelly Coffee Pot

<http://www.pelly.ca/about/the-pelly-coffee-pot.html>

Common sense is not too common.
Neither is common courtesy. Or common knowledge.

Rice paper isn't made from rice but from a small tree which grows in Taiwan.

A cat shows up at the Pearly gates of heaven.

St. Peter says, "I know you! You were a very nice cat on earth and didn't cause any trouble, so I want to offer a gift to you of one special thing you have always wanted."

Cat: "Well, I did always long to own a nice satin pillow like my master had, so I could lie on it."

St. Peter: "That's easy. Granted. You shall have the satin pillow after you enter in."

Next a group of mice appeared.

St. Peter: "Ah, I remember you! You were such good mice on earth. You didn't steal food from anyone's house and never hurt other animals.

Therefore, I want to grant you one special wish you always wanted."

The Chief Mouse replied, "Well, we always watched the children playing and saw them roller skate. It was beautiful and it looked like so much fun. So can we each have some roller skates, please?"

St. Peter: "Granted. You shall have your wish."

Next day, St. Peter is making rounds inside the Gates and sees the cat.

"Well, Cat...did you enjoy the satin pillow?"

Cat: "Oh, indeed I did. And say...that "Meals-on-Wheels" thing was a nice touch, too!"

Jones came into the office an hour late for the third time in one week and found the boss waiting for him.
"What's the story this time, Jones?" he asked sarcastically. "Let's hear a good excuse for a change."

Jones sighed, "Everything went wrong this morning, Boss. The wife decided to drive me to the station. She got ready in ten minutes, but then the drawbridge got stuck. Rather than let you down, I swam across the river, look, my suit's still damp -- ran out to the airport, got a ride on Mr.
Thompson's helicopter, landed on top of Radio City Music Hall, and was carried here piggyback by one of the Rockettes."

"You'll have to do better than that, Jones," said the boss, obviously disappointed. "No woman can get ready in ten minutes."

To determine when soil is ready for planting, grab a good handful of it. If you can form it into a ball, the soil is too wet. If it crumbles through your fingers and reminds you of chocolate cake, it's ready!
If it is frozen or covered in snow,
you're in Saskatchewan.

Why is abbreviation such a long word?

Old people shouldn't eat health foods.
They need all the preservatives they can get.

A girl came running in tears to her father.
"Dad, you gave me some terrible financial advice!" she cried.

"I did? What did I tell you?" said the dad.

"You told me to put my money in that big bank, and now that big bank is in trouble."

"What are you talking about? That's one of the largest banks in the world," he said.
"Surely there must be some mistake."

"I don't think so," she sniffed. "They just returned one of my checks with a note saying, 'Insufficient Funds'."

There was a farmer who had many pigs. One day someone came to the farm and asked the farmer, "What do you use to feed your pigs?"

"Well, I give them acorn, corn, vegetable scraps and things like that. Why?"

"Because I am from the Animals Protection Association and I think you don't feed them like you should, they shouldn't eat wastes."
Then he fined the farmer.

Some days later, another person arrived and asked the same question. The farmer answered, "Well, I feed them very well. I give them fish, whole grains, hot corn mash and as much fresh fruit and vegetables as I can get my hands on. Why?"

"Because I am from the United Nations Organization and I think it's unfair that you feed your pigs like that when there are people dying with nothing to eat." And he fined the farmer.

Finally, another man came in and asked the same question.

The hesitant farmer answered after a minute of careful thought: "Well, I give five dollars to each pig so they can buy whatever it is they want."

Borrow money from pessimists - they don't expect it back.

Irish Drinking Toast

May your glass be ever full.

May the roof over your head be always strong.

And may you be in heaven
half an hour before the devil knows you're dead.

"Hello, police? My next-door neighbor is exposing himself! He's just standing there, big as you please, showering with his shades up!" A squad car quickly arrived and Judy led the officer
into her bedroom. "See what I mean, officer?" Judy said, pointing to the window. The policeman looked puzzled.
"Ma'am, all I see is the top of some guy's head." Judy replied, disgustedly,
"You fool. Here, put this chair on the bed and stand on it!"

"It's sad to grow old, but nice to ripen."
Brigitte Bardot.

How did we describe the size of hail before golf was invented?

After a particularly bad round of golf, Robert decided not to go to the nineteenth hole [the clubhouse bar] and started to go straight home.

As he was walking to the car park to get his Range Rover, a policeman stopped him and asked, "Did you tee off on the seventeenth hole about twenty minutes ago?"

"Yes," Robert answered

"Did you happen to slice your ball so that it went over the trees and out of bounds and completely off the course?"

"Yes, I did. How did you know?" Robert questioned.

"Well," said the policeman gravely, "Your ball flew out onto the main road and crashed through the windscreen of a BMW. The car driver lost control and crashed into six other cars and a fire engine. The fire engine was unable to reach the fire in time and the building burned down. Now, what do you intend to do about it?"

Robert thought it over very carefully and responded, "I think I'll close my stance a little bit, tighten my grip and lower my right thumb."

A woman went to the doctor's office and was seen by one of the new young doctors. After about four minutes in the examination room, she started screaming and ran down the hall. An older doctor stopped her and asked what the problem was, and she told him her story. After listening, he told her to sit down and relax in another room. The older doctor marched down the hallway to the back where the first doctor was and demanded, "What's the matter with you? Mrs. Terry is 63 years old, she has four grown children and seven grandchildren, and you told her she was pregnant?"

The new doctor continued to write on his clipboard and, without looking up, said, "Does she still have the hiccups?"

"Some luck lies in not getting what you thought you wanted but getting what you have, which once you have it you may be smart enough to see is what you would have wanted had you known."

Garrison Keillor.

Two Frenchmen on vacation went by train to London, arriving at Waterloo Station. One said, "Waterloo Station? That's odd." Then they took the Underground to Trafalgar Square. The second Frenchman noted, "Trafalgar Square? That's odd." As they walked the city, they passed Agincourt Lane. They looked at each other in bewilderment. "Agincourt Lane? The English are mad. They name their places after defeats!"

A man is being interviewed for a job. "What are your qualifications for the job of night watchman?" "The slightest noise wakes me up."

A Welsh lad came home from school and told his mother he had been given a part in the school play.

"Wonderful," replies his mother, "what part is it?"

The boy says, "I play the part of the Welsh husband."

The mother scowls and says, "Go back and tell your teacher you want a speaking part."

What is the difference between Americans and Canadians?

How do you get 100 New Yorkers out of the pool?

Answer: Say "Every one STAY in the pool!"

How do you get 100 Californians out of the pool?

Answer: Say "This pool has been CHEMICALLY TREATED for your protection!"

How do you get 100 Republicans out of the pool?

Answer: Say "Being in this pool shows your support for the FEDERAL GOVERNMENT"

How do you get 100 Democrats out of the pool?

Answer: Say "This pool will be FUNDED COMPLETELY by the people in the pool!"

The difference between Canadians and Americans?

HOW DO YOU GET 100 CANADIANS OUT OF THE POOL?

ANSWER: SAY "Please get out of the pool."

Regular naps prevent old age..... especially if you take them while driving.

An acquaintance of mine who is a physician told this story about her then-four-year-old daughter. On the way to preschool, the doctor had left her stethoscope on the car seat, and her little girl picked it up and began playing with it. Be still, my heart, thought my friend, gee, my daughter wants to follow in my footsteps and be a doctor! Then the child spoke into the instrument: "Welcome to McDonald's. May I take your order?"

In Sweden, where they use an innovative waste-to-energy program and highly efficient recycling habits, they have actually run out of trash.

In order to continue fueling the waste-to-energy factories that provide electricity to a quarter of a million homes and 20 percent of the entire country's district heating, Sweden is now importing trash from the landfills of other European countries. In fact, those countries are paying Sweden to do so, turning garbage into gold for Sweden.

A nervous taxpayer was unhappily conversing with the CRA tax auditor who had come to review his records. At one point the auditor exclaimed, "Mr. Carr, we feel it is a great privilege to be allowed to live and work in the Canada. As a citizen, you have an obligation to pay taxes, and we expect you to eagerly pay them with a smile."

"Thank goodness," returned Mr. Carr, with a giant grin on his face from ear to ear. "I thought you were going to want me to pay with cash."

A rather 'large' woman arrived at the theatre just before the performance began, and handed the usher two tickets.

"Where is the other party?" the usher asked. Blushing, the woman explained, "Actually, both tickets are for me. You see, one seat is a little small for me and rather uncomfortable, so I bought two."

"That's fine with me, lady," said the usher, scratching his head. "There's just one problem though."

"Oh? What would that be?" the woman asked. "Your seats are numbered forty-six and fifty-nine!" he replied.

If at first you do succeed, try not to look too astonished.

A woman sued her local hospital claiming that, after her husband was treated there, he lost all interest in sex. But her case was thrown out of court when a hospital spokesman testified, "Your Honor, the man was admitted to our Ophthalmology Department. All we did was correct his vision!"

"Hello, police? My next-door neighbor is exposing himself! He's just standing there, big as you please, showering with his shades up!" A squad car quickly arrived and Judy led the officer into her bedroom. "See what I mean, officer?" Judy said, pointing to the window. The policeman looked puzzled. "Ma'am, all I see is the top of some guy's head." Judy replied, disgustedly, "You fool. Here, put this chair on the bed and stand on it!"

Helium is a very light, inert, colorless gas and has the lowest melting point of any element. No matter how low the temperature, helium is the only liquid that cannot be solidified and remains a liquid to absolute zero.

There are two theories to arguing with a woman. Neither theory works.

"Never make the mistake of confusing the importance of things with the things of importance."

QUOTE: "Great minds have purposes, others have wishes."

Isn't it odd? "I do" is the shortest complete sentence in the English language, but for some couples, it's also the longest!
