

In a morning Bible study, a group of women were studying how to live in a loving relationship with your husband. The women were asked, "How many of you love your husbands?"

All the women raised their hands.

Then they were asked, "When was the last time you told your husband you loved him?"

A few women answered today, some said yesterday, and some didn't remember.

The women were then asked to take their phones and send the text message, "I love you, sweetheart."

After a few minutes, the women were asked to exchange phones and read aloud the responding text messages.

Here are some of the replies:

1. Who is this?
2. Uh, mother of my children, are you sick?
3. I love you too.
4. What now? Did you wreck the car again?
5. I don't understand what you mean.
6. What did you do now?
7. ?!?!??
8. Don't beat about the bush, just tell me how much you need?
9. Am I dreaming?
10. If you don't tell me who this message is actually for, someone will die.
11. I thought we agreed we would not drink during the day.
12. Your mother is coming to stay, isn't she?

The Rules of Chocolate

- If you've got melted chocolate all over your hands, you're eating it too slowly.

- Chocolate covered raisins, cherries, orange slices & strawberries all count as fruit, so eat as many as you want.

- The problem: How to get 2 pounds of chocolate home from the store in a hot car. The solution: Eat it in the parking lot.

- Diet tip: Eat a chocolate bar before each meal. It'll take the edge off your appetite, and you'll eat less.

- If calories are an issue, store your chocolate on top of the fridge. Calories are afraid of heights, and they will jump out of the chocolate to protect themselves.

- If I eat equal amounts of dark chocolate and white chocolate, is that a balanced diet? Don't they actually counteract each other?

At a rent-a-boat company, the caller said into the microphone: "Boat 99, your hour is up, please head in."

An employee walks up to him and says: "We only have 75 boats, there is no boat 99, sir."

The caller then said into the microphone: "Boat 66, are you in trouble?"

Church Bulletin

Don't let worry kill you off - let the Church help.

Miss Charlene Mason sang 'I will not pass this way again,' giving obvious pleasure to the congregation...

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Next Thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

A bean supper will be held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Music will follow.

The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility.

A Doctor was addressing a large audience in Toronto.

"The material we put into our stomachs is enough to have killed most of us sitting here, years ago. Red meat is awful. Soft drinks corrode your stomach lining. Chinese food is loaded with MSG. High fat diets can be disastrous, and none of us realizes the long-term harm caused by the germs in our drinking water.

"But there is one thing that is the most dangerous of all, and we all have, or will, eat it. Would anyone care to guess what food causes the most grief and suffering for years after eating it?" He noticed one man in the front row nodding knowingly. "Yes?" the doctor says, asking the man to speak aloud. The man replied, in a loud voice: "Wedding cake."

A Subway Drop

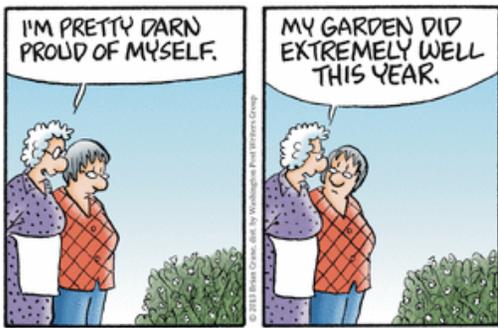

The Manhattan Commuter train was packed. Suddenly there was a jingle on the floor. Most necks were craned. One elderly gentleman, however, bent down and picked something up. He then asked, "Did anyone drop a half dollar?"

"I did," answered three men at once. "Well," said the elderly gent with a smile, "here's a dime of it."

In 1944, the H.W. Lay Company became one of the first snack food makers to advertise on television, with a cartoon character called Oscar, the Happy Potato. It was never explained how Oscar was happy to be sliced wafer-thin and deep-fried in a vat of boiling oil.

Sweet potatoes aren't potatoes at all, but vine roots. They're also unrelated to yams.

The name of the social network Twitter was originally "Twttr," later changed to Twitter.

The 2012 US election broke records with 31.7 million political tweets. Election Day was by far the most tweeted about event in U.S. political history.

There were 13.7 million football-related tweets during the 2012 Super Bowl, one million of which appeared in the game's final 5 minutes.

Between 2008 and 2011, there was a 5,000% increase in the number of employees at Twitter.

The average Twitter user has tweeted 307 times.

Twitter is available in more than 25 languages, including right-to-left languages like Arabic, Farsi, Hebrew and Urdu.

Unlike most fish, electric eels cannot get enough oxygen from water. Approximately every five minutes, they must surface to breathe, or they will drown. Unlike most fish, they can swim both backwards and forwards.

Flowers are pollinated mostly by bees; up to one third of all plant pollination on earth are by bees. In short, this means that one in every three spoons of food you put in your mouth was a direct result of the work done by bees.

Between 20,000 and 60,000 bees live in a single hive. The queen bee lays 1,500 eggs a day and lives for up to 2 years. The drone, whose only job it is to mate with the queen bee, has a lifespan of around 24 days - they have no stinger. Worker bees - all sterile females - usually work themselves to death within 40 days in summer, collecting pollen and nectar. Worker bees fly up to 14km (9 miles) to find pollen and nectar, flying at 24km/h (15 mph).

A worker bee communicates her floral findings by performing a dance on the honeycomb. The orientation of her movements and the frequency of her vibrations indicate the direction and distance of the flowers.

30 percent of the University degrees awarded in China and India are engineering degrees. In the US, that number is only 4 percent.

Did you know the first bullet proof vest and windshield wiper blades were both invented by women?

How Many Dogs Does It Take To Change A Light Bulb?

Golden Retriever: The sun is shining, the day is young, we've got our whole lives ahead of us, and you're inside worrying about a stupid burned out bulb?

Border Collie: Just one. And then I'll replace any wiring that's not up to code.

Dachshund: You know I can't reach that stupid bulb!

Lab: Oh, me, me, meee!!!! Pleeeeeze let me change the light bulb! Can I? Can I? Huh? Huh? Huh? Can I?

Malamute: Let the Border Collie do it. You can feed me while he's busy.

Jack Russell Terrier: I'll just pop it in while I'm bouncing off the walls and furniture.

Poodle: I'll blow in the Border Collie's ear and he'll do it. By the time he finishes rewiring the house, my nails will be dry.

Cocker Spaniel: Why change it? I can pee on the carpet in the dark.

Doberman Pinscher: While it's dark, I'm going to sleep on the sofa.

Boxer: Who cares? I can play with my squeaky toys in the dark.

Mastiff: Mastiffs are not afraid of the dark.

Chihuahua: Yo quiero Taco Bulb.

Irish Wolfhound: Can somebody else do it? I've got this hangover and....

Pointer: I see it! There it is! There it is! There it is! Right there! Can you see it yet? Can you? Look!

Greyhound: It isn't moving. Who cares?

Australian Shepherd: First, I'll put all the light bulbs in a little circle....

Old English Sheep Dog: Light bulb? That thing I just ate was a light bulb?

Rottweiler: Make me.

The year 1988 had the longest Roman numeral sequence of any year since such numbers were used: MCMLXXXVIII. Twelve years later came the shortest one in recent history: MM for the year 2000.

Aerodynamically, the bumble bee shouldn't be able to fly, but the bumble bee doesn't know it so it goes on flying anyway."

Two guys are talking about their boss's upcoming wedding. One says, "It's ridiculous, he's rich, but he's 93 years old, and she's just 26! What kind of a wedding is that?"

The other says, "Well, we have a name for it in my family."

"What do you call it?"

"We call it a football wedding."

The first asks, "What's a football wedding?"

The other says, "She's waiting for him to kick off!"

There are only two days of the year when you can stand an egg on its end - the autumn and spring equinox. To do this, place an egg on a hard, flat surface on its largest end. Carefully pull your hands away and it should remain upright.

Years ago, two Irish nuns came through Ellis Island and found themselves in the big city. One said, "I hear the people here actually eat dogs." Her companion replied, "That's odd, but if we're going to live here, we should do as they do." Just then, a pushcart vendor yelled, "Get your dogs here!" so they decided to try one. "Two dogs, please!" The vendor collected their money and gave them each a hot dog. Excited, the nuns stepped aside and unwrapped their sandwiches. The first blushed and then whispered, "What part did you get?"

The act of snapping one's fingers has a name. It is called a 'fillip.'

Between two evils, I always pick the one I never tried before.

A turkey can run 20 miles-per-hour.

Beetles account for one quarter of all known species of plants and animals. There are more kinds of beetles than all plants.
