

A woman was taking her time browsing through everything at a friend's yard sale, and said to her, "My husband is going to be very angry I stopped at a yard sale."

"I'm sure he'll understand when you tell him about all the bargains you found," her friend replied.

"Normally, yes," she said. "But he just broke his leg, and he's waiting for me to take him to the hospital to have it set."

A tough old cowboy once counselled his grandson that if he wanted to live a long life, the secret was to sprinkle a little gunpowder on his oatmeal every morning.

The grandson did this religiously and he lived to the age of 93.

When he died, he left 14 children, 28 grandchildren, 35 great grandchildren and a fifteen foot hole in the wall of the crematorium.

There's a man trying to cross the street. As he steps off the curb a car comes screaming around the corner and heads straight for him. The man walks faster, trying to hurry across the street, but the car changes lanes and is still coming at him.

So the guy turns around to go back, but the car changes lanes again and is still coming at him. By now, the car is so close and the man so scared that he just freezes and stops in the middle of the road. The car gets real close, then swerves at the last possible moment and screeches to a halt right next him.

The driver rolls down the window. The driver is a squirrel. The squirrel says to the man says,

"See, it's not as easy as it looks, is it?"

Pelly Coffee Pot

"A cat has absolute emotional honesty: human beings, for one reason or another, may hide their feelings, but a cat does not."

-Ernest Hemingway.

Cats cannot taste things that are sweet. The taste buds of a cat cannot detect sugar.

Originally kitty litter was made from sand, but in 1948 it was discovered that clay was more absorbent.

A cat's collarbone does not connect to any other bones but instead sits buried in muscle. This makes it easier for them to squeeze through tight spots.

Cats are able to see in the dark. They see at one-sixth the light level required for human vision.

Cats purr at the same frequency as an idling diesel engine. This is around 26 purrs per second.

Cats use whiskers to gauge whether or not they can fit through an opening.

Mellowing Mom

I have five siblings, three sisters and two brothers.

One night I was chatting with my Mom about how she had changed as a mother from the first child to the last.

She told me she had mellowed a lot over the years:

"When your oldest sister coughed or sneezed, I called the ambulance.

When your youngest brother swallowed a dime, I just told him it was coming out of his allowance."

* Ice cream was invented in China around 2,000 BC when the Chinese placed a milk and rice mixture in the snow.

RANDOM TIDBITS

Al Capone's older brother Vince was a policeman in Nebraska.

Alexander Graham Bell refused to have a phone in his study - the ringing drove him nuts.

The day Judy Garland died, a tornado touched down in Kansas.

Buzz Aldrin's mother's maiden name was Moon.

Kodak founder George Eastman hated to have his picture taken.

Two guys wearing hoodies approached the Pearly Gates. Saint Peter said, "Wait here. I'll be right back." He found God and told him who was waiting. God said, "How many times must I tell you? We're not prejudiced here. This is Heaven. All are welcome. Go back and let them in!" Saint Peter returned to the Pearly Gates, sighed, then returned to God and said, "Well, they're gone." "The guys in hoodies?" asked God. "No. The Pearly Gates!"

I've learned...,

...that you cannot make someone love you. All you can do is stalk them and hope they panic and give in.

...that no matter how much I care, some people are just jerks.

...that it takes years to build up trust, and only suspicion, not proof, to destroy it.

...that you can get by on charm for about fifteen minutes. After that, you'd better have a big secret or huge tracts of land.

...that you shouldn't compare yourself to others - they are more messed up than you think.

...that you can keep hurling long after you think you're finished.

...that we are responsible for what we do, unless we are celebrities.

...that regardless of how hot and steamy a relationship is at first, the passion fades, and there had better be a lot of money to take its place.

...that sometimes the people you expect to kick you when you're down will be the ones who do.

...that we don't have to ditch bad friends because their dysfunction makes us feel better about ourselves.

...that no matter how you try to protect your children, they will eventually get arrested and end up in the local paper.

...that the people you care most about in life are taken from you too soon and all the less important ones just never go away.

Five cannibals get appointed as engineers for a defence contractor.

During the welcoming ceremony the boss says, "You're all part of our team now. You can earn good money here, and you can go to the cafeteria for something to eat. So please don't trouble any of the other employees."

The cannibals promised. Four weeks later the boss returns and says, "You're all working very hard, and I'm very satisfied with all of you.

However, the janitor has disappeared. Do any of you know what happened to him?"

The cannibals all shake their heads no.

After the boss has left, the leader of the cannibals says to the others, "Which of you idiots ate the janitor?"

A hand raises hesitantly, to which the leader of the cannibals replies, "You fool! For four weeks we've been eating Team Leaders, Supervisors and Project Managers and no one noticed a thing, and you had to go and eat the one guy who works around here!"

Dai worked in a local Pizza Parlour near Swansea, Wales. A man came in and ordered a pizza to take away [pizza to go]. Dai asked the man whether he would like the pizza cut into 4 or 6 portions. The man puzzled over this for quite a while before answering that he would prefer 4 portions because he thought he wasn't hungry enough to eat 6.

Hillary Clinton died and went to heaven. As she stood in front of Saint Peter at the Pearly Gates, she saw a huge wall of clocks behind him. She asked, "What are all those clocks?"

Saint Peter answered, "Those are Lie-Clocks. Everyone on Earth has a Lie-Clock. Every time you lie, the hands on your clock will move.

"Oh," said Hillary, "whose clock is that?"

"That's Mother Teresa's. The hands have never moved indicating that she never told a lie."

"Whose clock is that?"

"That's Abraham Lincoln's clock. The hands have only moved twice telling us that Abe only told 2 lies in his entire life."

"Where's Bill's clock?" Hillary asked.

"Bill's clock is in Jesus' office. He's using it as a ceiling fan."

Any fool can tell the truth, but it requires a man of some sense to know how to lie well.
Samuel Butler

Why don't blind people sky dive? Because it scares the hell out of their dogs!

Oh, the tragedy: hundreds of kids, shipped off to mime boarding schools, never to be heard from again.

If a person is choking on an ice cube, don't panic. Simply pour a jug of boiling water down their throat and presto! The blockage is almost instantly removed.
