Francis Norton woke up Sunday morning and realizing it was an exceptionally beautiful and sunny early spring day, decided he just had to play golf. So... he told the Associate Pastor that he was feeling sick and convinced him to say Mass for him that day. As soon as the Associate Pastor left the room, Father Norton headed out of town to a golf course about forty miles away. This way he knew he wouldn't accidentally meet anyone he knew from his parish. Setting up on the first tee, he was alone. After all, it was Sunday morning and everyone else was in church! At about this time, Saint Peter leaned over to the Lord while looking down from the heavens and exclaimed, "You're not going to let him get away with this, are you?" The Lord sighed, and said, "No, I guess not." Just then Father Norton hit the ball and it shot straight towards the pin, dropping just short of it, rolled up and fell into the hole. It WAS A 420 YARD HOLE IN ONE! St. Peter was astonished. He looked at the Lord and asked, "Why did you let him do that?" The Lord smiled and replied, "Who's he going to tell?"

One woman was talking to her friend, "You should listen to my neighbor," she says. "She is always bad-mouthing her poor husband behind his back. I think that's so rude. Look at me! My husband is fat, lazy and cheap; but have you ever heard me say a bad word about about him?"

Studies have found napping raises your stamina 11 percent, increases ability to stay asleep all night by 12 percent, and lowers the time required to fall asleep by 14 percent.

Rules for Non-Pet Owners Who Visit and Like to Complain About Our Pets

1. The cats live here. You don't.
2. If you don't want cat hair on your clothes, stay off the furniture
3. I like my cats a lot better than I like most people
4. To you, they're cats. To me, they're an adopted son or daughter who is short, hairy, walks on all fours and doesn't speak clearly
5. Cats are better than kids. They eat less, don't ask for money all the time, are easier to train, sometimes come when called, never drive your car, don't hang out with drug-using friends, don't smoke or drink, don't worry about buying the latest fashions, don't wear your clothes, don't need a gazillion dollars for college, and if they get pregnant, you can sell the kittens.
6. They ignore you until you are asleep.

When a guy's printer type began to grow faint, he called a local repair shop where a friendly man informed him that the printer probably needed only to be cleaned. Because the store charged $50 for such cleanings, he told him he might be better off reading the printer's manual and trying the job himself. Pleasantly surprised by his candor, he asked, "Does your boss know that you discourage business?" "Actually, it's my boss's idea," the employee replied sheepishly. "We usually make more money on repairs if we let people try to fix things themselves first."

There are two equinoxes every year – in March and September – when the sun shines directly on the equator and the length of day and night is nearly equal. Seasons are opposite on either side of the equator, so the equinox in March is also known as the "spring equinox" in the northern hemisphere. However, in the southern hemisphere, it's known as the "autumnal (fall) equinox".

Don't knock the weather 9/10 of people couldn't start a conversation if it didn't change once in a while

The Romans named March for Mars, the god of war (it was a traditional time to resume military campaigns), and made it the first month of their year.

March is notoriously temperamental weather-wise. According to old weather proverbs, if it comes in like a lion, it will go out like a lamb.

The month is alive with fast-moving weather systems, tantalizingly warm days, and record-breaking storms.

One old man said, "My grandson asked me what I did during the sexual revolution." Another old guy asked, "What did you tell him?" "I told him I was captured early and spent the duration doing dishes!"

Four high school boys afflicted with spring fever skipped morning classes. After lunch they reported to the teacher that they had a flat tire. Much to their relief she smiled and said, "Well, you missed a test today so take seats apart from one another and take out a piece of paper." Still smiling, she waited for them to sit down. Then she said: "First Question: Which tire was flat?"

Man will never be content until each man makes his own weather and keeps it to himself

Isn't it interesting that the same people who laugh at science fiction listen the weather forecast and economists?

A woman came home to find her husband in the kitchen, shaking frantically with what looked like a wire running from his waist towards the electric kettle. Intending to jolt him away from the deadly current she whacked him with a handy plank of wood by the back door, breaking his arm in two places. Until that moment he had been happily listening to his iPod.

Finally, the good-natured boss was compelled to call Smith into his office.

"It has not escaped my attention," he pointed out, "that every time there's a home game at the stadium, you have to take your aunt to the doctor."

"You know you're right, sir," exclaimed Smith. "I didn't realize it. You don't suppose she's faking, do you?"

Divorce Case

"Mr Edwards, I have reviewed your petition very carefully," the divorce court Judge said, "And I've decided to give your wife $600 a week,"
 "That's very fair, your honour," the husband said, "and every now and then I'll try to send her a few dollars myself."

A restaurant patron continually bothered his waiter about the air conditioning: it was too hot, it was too cold, then too hot... this went on and on. To the other customers' surprise, the waiter remained patient and pleasant. Finally another customer asked, "Why don't you just throw out that pest?" The waiter grinned and said, "Oh, I don't mind. We don't even have an air conditioner!"

13. We lie the loudest when we lie to ourselves.
14. Jumping to conclusions can be bad exercise.
15. A turtle makes progress when it sticks its head out.
16. One thing you can give and still keep ...is your word.
17. A friend walks in when everyone else walks out.
18. The pursuit of happiness is: the chase of a lifetime!

"What kind of music do you sing?"
 "Aqua-pella."
 "Don't you mean 'a cappella', singing without instrumental accompaniment?"
 "Nope. I mean 'aqua-pella', singing accompanied only by the water coming out of the shower-head."

Two farmers are talking to each other over a 5-bar gate when one turns to the others and asks, 'Do your cows smoke?'

No, answered the first one, surprised.

Well then your cowshed must be burning!

Some people bend over backward not to insult others. A while ago, I overheard my sister, a travel agent, confirm her client's flight this way: "Your confirmation code is F as in Foxtrot, R as in Romeo, and I as in, uuuh, Native American."

Bad winter?

During the most recent North American glaciation, during the latter part of the Wisconsin Stage (26,000 to 13,300 years ago), ice sheets extended to about 45 degrees north latitude. (the US border is at the 49th) These sheets were 3 to 4 km thick
