My name is Alice Smith and I was sitting in the waiting room for my first appointment with a new dentist. I noticed his diploma, which had his full name.

Suddenly, I remembered a tall, handsome, dark-haired boy with the same name had been in my high school class some 30-odd years ago. Could he be the same guy that I had a secret crush on, way back then? Upon seeing him, however, I quickly discarded any such thought. This balding, grey-haired man with the deeply lined face was way too old to have been my classmate.

After he examined my teeth, I asked him if he had attended Morgan Park High school.

'Yes. Yes, I did.' he gleamed with pride.

'When did you graduate?' I asked.

He answered, 'In 1967. Why do you ask?'

'You were in my class!' I exclaimed.

He looked at me closely. Then, that ugly, old, bald, wrinkled, fat, grey-haired man asked, 'What did you teach?'

Someone who teaches at a middle school in Safety Harbor, FL forwarded the following letter. It was sent to the principal's office after the school sponsored a luncheon for the elderly. An old lady received a new radio at the lunch as a door prize and was writing to thank them:

Dear Safety Harbor Middle School, God bless you for the beautiful radio I won at your recent senior citizens luncheon. I am 84 years old and live at the Safety Harbor Assisted Home for the Aged. All of my family has passed away. I am all alone now and it's nice to know that someone is thinking of me.

God bless you for your kindness to an old forgotten lady. My roommate is 95 and always had her own radio but before I received one, she would never let me listen to hers even when she was napping. The other day her radio fell off the night stand and broke into a lot of pieces. It was awful and she was in tears. She asked if she could listen to mine and I told her to screw off. Thank you for that opportunity.

In 1957, BBC's April Fool's joke reported about poor "spaghetti crops." Millions were duped by the report, with many of them asking how they can grow their own spaghetti trees.

A very dirty little fellow came in from playing in the yard and asked his mother, "Who am I?" Ready to play the game she said, "I don't know! Who are you?" "WOW!" cried the child. "Mrs. Johnson was right! She said I was so dirty, my own mother wouldn't recognize me!"

Toto the dog was paid $125 a week for his work in The Wizard of Oz.

The first known item made from aluminum was a rattle — made for Napoleon III in the 1850s. Napoleon also provided his most honoured guests with knives and forks made of pure aluminum. At the time, the newly discovered metal was so rare, it was considered more valuable than gold.

"What's the use of having a train schedule if the trains are always late?" complained an irate passenger to the railroad engineer.

"How would we know the trains were late, if we didn't have a schedule?" replied the engineer.

There are a lot of dim bulbs out there roaming free on this planet. Here's a list of quotes from several of them that I overheard recently. If this keeps up our species is doomed!

» When we think of Big Ben in London, we think of the clock. Actually, it's the bell.

In the "West Ed Mall" in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, there are over 800 stores. It has the world's largest indoor wave pool. It has over 110 places to eat. Of course, West Ed Mall, the world's largest mall, has the world's largest parking lot. There are one-third of a million lighting fixtures. It has 58 entrances. West Ed Mall was opened in 1981, and the fourth phase was completed 17 years later. There are two A & Ws, two Baskin Robbinses, two KFCs, two Arbys, two Dairy Queens, three Orange Juliuses and three McDonalds in West Ed Mall. Surprisingly, there is only one Starbucks there.

Recently in Traffic Court a man who received an expensive parking ticket testified that a uniformed Policeman had given his OK for the man to park there.

The Judge asked the man if he would recognize the Officer if he ever saw him again, and the man replied that he would.

The Judge then said, "Good. When you see the Officer again, tell him he owes you $57. Next."

Supposedly true excerpts of kids' Sunday School letters to God.

Dear God:

In Sunday School they told us what you do. Who does it when you are on vacation?

How did you know you were God? I read the Bible. What does begat mean? Nobody will tell me. Love, Allison

On Halloween I am going to wear a Devil's costume, is that all right with you?

Are you really invisible or is that just a trick?

Is it true my father won't get into Heaven if he uses his bowling words in the house?

Did you mean for giraffe to look like that or was it an accident?

Who draws the lines around the countries?

Do animals get to use you too or is there someone else for them?

I went to this wedding and they kissed right in the church ... is that OK?

I like the Lord's Prayer the best of all. Did you have to write it a lot or did you get it right the first time? I have to write everything I ever write over again.

God, it's OK that you made different religions but don't you get mixed up sometimes?

Did they really talk that fancy in Bible times?

Did you really mean do unto others as they do unto you, because if you did then I'm going to fix my brother. My grandpa says you were around when he was a little boy. How far back DO you go?

Thank you for the baby brother but what I prayed for was a puppy. Please put another holiday between Christmas and Easter. There is nothing good in there now.

Why is Sunday School on Sunday? I thought it was suppose to be our day of rest.

I keep waiting for Spring but it never comes yet. Please don't forget.

Why did the chicken stop when she was halfway across the road? She wanted to lay it on the line!

In bed, at 6 am, you close your eyes for "just five minutes" and it's 7 am. At work, at 3 pm, you close your eyes for "just five minutes" and it's 3:01!
