Vol 5-22

There were two evil brothers. They were rich, and used their money to keep their ways from the public eye. They even attended the same church, and looked to be perfect Christians.

Then, their pastor retired, and a new one was hired. Not only could he see right through the brothers' deception, but he also spoke well and true, and the church started to swell in numbers. A fund-raising campaign was started to build a new assembly.

All of a sudden, one of the brothers died. The remaining brother sought out the new pastor the day before the funeral and handed him a check for the amount needed to finish paying for the new building.

"I have only one condition," he said. "At his funeral, you must say my brother was a saint." The pastor gave his word, and deposited the check.

The next day, at the funeral, the pastor did not hold back. "He was an evil man," he said. "He cheated on his wife and abused his family." After going on in this vein for a small time, he concluded with, "But, compared to his brother, he was a saint."

I was driving with my three young children one warm summer evening when a woman in the convertible ahead of us stood up and waved. She was stark naked! As I was reeling from the shock, I heard my 5-year-old shout from the back seat, "Mom! That lady isn't wearing a seat belt!"

Don't be so open minded that your brain falls out

Do whatever your enemies do not want you to do.

An old man in Phoenix calls his son in New York and says, "I hate to ruin your day, but I have to tell you that your mother and I are divorcing; forty-five years of misery is enough."

"Pop, what are you talking about," the son screams.

"We can't stand the sight of each other any longer," the old man said. "We're sick and tired of each other, and I'm sick of talking about this, so you call your sister in Chicago and tell her." And he hangs up.

Frantic, the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone, "Like heck they're getting a divorce," she shouts. "I'll take care of this." She calls Phoenix immediately, and screams at the old man, "You are NOT getting divorced! Don't do a single thing until I get there. I'm calling my brother back and we'll both be there tomorrow. Until then don't do a thing, DO YOU HEAR ME?" And she hangs up.

The old man hangs up his phone and turns to his wife. "Okay," he says, "They're coming for Thanksgiving and paying their own way!!"

Murphy lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet dog for company.

One day the dog died and Murphy went to the parish priest and asked, "Father, me dog is dead. Could ya' be saying a mass for the poor creature.?" Father Patrick replied, "I'm afraid not. We cannot have services for an animal in the church.

But there be some Baptists down the lane, and there's no tellin' what they believe.

Maybe they'll do something for the creature."

Murphy said, "I'll go right away Father. Do ya' think five thousand dollars is enough to donate for the service?" Father Patrick exclaimed, "Sweet Mary, Mother of Jesus! Why didn't ya' tell me the dog was Catholic?"

New Rule: There's no such thing as flavoured water. There's a whole aisle of this crap at the supermarket, water, but without that watery taste. Sorry, but flavoured water is called a soft drink. You want flavoured water? Pour some scotch over ice and let it melt. That's your flavoured water.

Congratulations to the 2014 Grad Class. Another of life's milestones achieved - many more to look forward to.

The chef at a family-run restaurant had broken her leg and came into our insurance office to file a disability claim. As I scanned the claim form, I did a double take.

Under "Reason unable to work," she wrote: "Can't stand to cook."

The word cheap comes from Cheapside, a market in London. The Old English word was ceap (pronounced "keep"), which meant "to sell or barter." Because Cheapside was a major market where people went to barter for low prices, the word gradually took on a new pronunciation, and meaning.

The word denim comes from Nimes, France. The tough cloth used in jeans was also made in Nimes. It was called serge di Nimes - later shortened to di nimes, which became denim.

The word coffee comes from Kaffa, Ethiopia. According to legend, coffee beans were first discovered in the town of Kaffa. By the 13th century, the Kaffa beans had traveled, becoming qahwah in Arabia, cafe in Europe, and finally coffee in the New World.

The word cologne comes from Cologne, Germany. The scented water that was produced there beginning in 1709 was named for the city.

The word slave comes from Slavonia, Yugoslavia. After large parts of Slavonia were subjugated by Europeans in the Middle Ages, a Slav became synonymous with

A little girl had just finished her first week of school. "I'm just wasting my time," she said to her mother. "I can't read, I can't write and they won't let me talk!"

"MUST YOU SPOIL EVERYTHING?"

On a street, where the speed is limited to 30 mph the police stop a driver. "Not only have you been driving too fast, you've been passing cars where it is not allowed. Your lights don't work, your tires all completely worn out. This is surely going to cost you a lot. What's your name?" "Schtrathewisizeski Vocgefastilongchinic." "Well, I'll let you go this time but don't do it again."

City dwellers have longer, thicker, denser nose hairs than country folks do.

TRUE or FALSE:
A pitcher can strike out four batters in one inning.

True. If the catcher drops the third strike on a batter, and the batter runs to first base without being tagged or thrown out, the strikeout is recorded, but not the out.

At its centre, the Sun has a density of over a hundred times that of water, and a temperature of 10-20 million degrees Celsius.

Ladies and gentlemen, hobos and tramps,
Bug-eyed mosquitoes and bowlegged ants!
I'm about to tell you a story I've never heard before,
So pull up a chair and sit on the floor.
Admission is free, so pay at the door.
One fine day, in the middle of the night,
two, dead boys got up to fight.
Back to back, they faced each other,
drew their swords and shot each other.
A deaf policeman heard the noise,
and saved the lives of the two dead boys.
If you don't believe my lies are true, ask the blind man, he saw it too!

Fear of the number 13 is known as triskaidekaphobia, while fear of Friday the 13th is known as paraskavedekatriaphobia.

I always wondered why somebody doesn't do something about that. Then I realized I was somebody.

Don't be irreplaceable; if you cannot be replaced, you cannot be promoted.

Why can't you write with a broken pencil?
Because it's pointless.

Your dog's barking at the back door.
Your spouse's barking at the front.
Who do you let in?

Well, it's your call, but the dog'll stop barking when you let him in.

A preacher was standing at the pulpit giving his Sunday sermon when a note was passed to him. The only word written on the sheet was IDIOT. Looking up at the congregation, the preacher smiled and said: I have heard of men who write letters and forget to sign their names but this is the first time I will see a man sign his name and forget to write the letter.

There is at least one Friday the 13th in every year, and at the most there are three. June had the only Friday the 13th of 2014!

A lie told often enough becomes the truth.--Lenin

QUOTE: "So difficult it is to show the various meanings and imperfections of words when we have nothing else but words to do it with."
