

Introducing the new Bio-Optic Organized Knowledge device, or BOOK for short. BOOK is a revolutionary breakthrough in technology: no wires, no electric circuits, no batteries, nothing to be connected or switched on.

It's so easy to use, even a child can operate it. Compact and portable, it can be used anywhere, even sitting in an armchair by the fire, yet it is powerful enough to hold as much information as a CD-ROM disc.

Here's how it works

BOOK is constructed of sequentially numbered sheets of paper (recyclable), each capable of holding thousands of bits of information. The pages are locked together with a custom-fit device called a binder which keeps the sheets in their correct sequence. Opaque Paper Technology (OPT) allows manufacturers to use both sides of the sheet, doubling the information density and cutting costs.

BOOKs with more information simply use more pages. Each sheet is scanned optically, registering information directly into your brain. A flick of the finger takes you to the next sheet. BOOK may be taken up at any time and used merely by opening it.

BOOK never crashes or requires rebooting. The "browse" feature allows you to move instantly to any sheet, and move forward or backward as you wish. Many BOOKs come with an "index" feature, which pinpoints the exact location of any selected information for instant retrieval.

An optional "BOOKmark" accessory allows you to open BOOK to the exact place you left it in a previous session, even if the BOOK has been closed. BOOKmarks fit universal design standards; thus, a single BOOKmark can be used in BOOKs by various manufacturers. Conversely, numerous BOOKmarks can be used in a single BOOK if the user wants to store numerous views at once.

This revolutionary, thornless raspberry is a little dwarf of a raspberry with an endearing compact growth habit that thrives in patio pots or in your landscape. For the first time ever, whether you have an urban balcony or a country estate, you can savour the experience of fresh raspberries from your very own plants.

A guy sat down at the bar and told the barman, "Gimme a Less." "I'm sorry, sir, but I've never heard of that one before. Is it a spirit?" "I dunno," replied the man. "Last week my doctor told me that I should drink Less."

The Farmer's Almanac
Coming soon:

- Automated tractors that operate without a person behind the wheel
- Robots with foam padded hands that pick strawberries without bruising the fruit.
- Trucks with cameras to locate oranges and hydraulic arms to knock the fruit loose from the trees.

Two old men were sitting in a bar. One said to the other, "if I die first I want you to pour a 5th of whiskey on my grave every year on my birthday?" The other said, "do you mind if I filter it through my kidneys first?"

A beaver dam in Canada's Wood Buffalo National Park spans about 2,800 feet.

- Several generations of beavers have worked on the dam since the mid-1970s and it's still growing.

- It surpasses a previous record-sized beaver dam in Montana.

A Canadian ecologist has discovered the world's largest beaver dam in a remote area of northern Alberta, an animal-made structure so large it is visible from space.

In addition to the process of preserving the dead and installing their departed rulers in elaborate mausoleums, what was unusual about the surroundings provided by the Egyptians within the pyramids?

Answer: Tombs of Egyptian rulers were decorated with furnishings, musical instruments and in some instances even bathrooms.

If you put a drop of liquor on a scorpion, it will instantly go mad and sting itself to death.

My close friend went out to his rose garden on his lunch break and died there, amongst the blooms for his memorial.

I said to my daughter "that's how I would like to go -- in my vegetable garden."

She thought about it only a second, then suggested, "do you think you could crawl as far as the asparagus patch? We could cover you over and every time we had a dish of that delicious asparagus, we could say 'thanks, Mom'".

A man walks into a florists: 'I'd like some flowers please.'

'Certainly, sir. What did you have in mind?'

He shrugs: 'Well I'm not sure, I uh, I uh...'

'Perhaps I could help. What exactly have you done?'

A Poem for Women

He didn't like the casserole
And he didn't like my cake.
My biscuits were too hard...
Not like his mother used to make.

I didn't perk the coffee right
He didn't like the stew,
I didn't mend his socks
The way his mother used to do.

I pondered for an answer
I was looking for a clue.
Then I turned around and SMACKED him...
Like his Mother used to do.

The elementary school cook prided herself on the healthy meals she provided with lots of vegetables and fruits. When the power failed one day, the cook couldn't serve a hot meal in the cafeteria, so at the last minute she whipped up great stacks of peanut-butter-and-jelly sandwiches.

As one little boy filled his plate, he said,
"It's about time. At last -- a home-cooked meal!"

if you wish to be happy for a day, get drunk
if you wish to be happy for a week, kill a pig if you wish to be happy for a month, get married but if you wish to be happy for ever and ever, make a garden

Gardening Tongue Twisters

Moses supposes his toeses are roses,
But Moses supposes erroneously,
For nobody's toeses are posies of roses
As Moses supposes his toeses to be.

Did Doug dig Dick's garden or did Dick dig Doug's garden?

Theophilus Thistler, the thistle sifter, in sifting a sieve of unsifted thistles, thrust three thousand thistles through the thick of his thumb.

Chocolate can kill dogs; it directly affects their heart and nervous system.

If a train station is where the train stops and a bus station is where the bus stops, what is a work station?

In a murder trial, the defence attorney was cross-examining the coroner:

Attorney: Before you signed the death certificate, had you taken the pulse?

Coroner: No.

Attorney: Did you listen to the heart?

Coroner: No.

Attorney: Did you check for breathing?

Coroner: No.

Attorney: So, when you signed the death certificate, you weren't sure the man was dead, were you?

Coroner: Well, let me put it this way. The mans brain was sitting in a jar on my desk. But I guess its possible he could be out there practicing law somewhere.
