

"The length of a film should be directly related to the endurance of the human bladder."

Traveling through New England, a motorist stopped for gas in a tiny village. "What's this place called?" he asked the station attendant. "All depends," the native drawled. "Do you mean by them that has to live in this dad-blamed, moth-eaten, dust-covered dump, or by them that's merely enjoying its quaint and picturesque rustic charms for a short spell."

Dr. Phil proclaimed the way to achieve inner peace is to finish all the things you have started. So, I looked around my house to see things I started, and hadn't finished; and, before leaving the house this morning, I finished off a bottle of Merlot, a bottle of Kahlua, a package of Oreo's, a pot of coffee, the rest of the Cheesecake, some Saltines, and a box of Godiva Chocolates. You have no idea how freaking good I feel.

"Here's a picture of me when I was younger." "Isn't every picture of you when you were younger?"

Here are some interesting facts about humans.

1. By the time we turn 60, most of us have lost about half our taste buds.
2. Women blink twice as much as men.
3. We use 200 muscles to take one step.
4. Our tongue is our strongest muscle.
5. We cannot tickle ourselves.
6. Our brains are more active during nighttime than during the day.
7. Blond people have more hair.
8. Our sneeze travels at 100 miles per hour.
9. We, humans share 50% of our genes with bananas.
10. Our brain is 80% water.

My friend thinks he is smart. He told me an onion is the only food that makes you cry, so I threw a coconut at his face.

A message claims that a chemist in France has discovered a way to unboil a boiled egg in kitchen. It is a fact. About the Chemist: Herve, the French physical chemist who found a way to unboil an egg, works for the Institut National de la Recherche Agronomique at AgroParisTech, in Paris. Herve does his scientific research in molecular gastronomy, i.e. the science of culinary phenomena, studying mechanisms in culinary transformations.

Deep Thoughts About Pigs and Sheep

- Do you think sheep know when you're pulling the wool over their eyes?
- Does the person who inventories sheep often fall asleep on the job?
- If a pig is sold to the pawn shop is it then called a ham-hock?
- If we make sweaters out of a sheep's hair, what do the sheep use to make sweaters?
- If you can't make a silk purse from a sow's ear what can you make with it?
- If you pushed a pig down a hill would he be a sausage roll?
- What do pigs say when they don't want to do something? Would it be 'Yea when humans fly'?
- What do sheep count when they can't get to sleep?
- Why can't pigs look up into the sky?
- Why do pigs have curly tails?
- Why do we call them guinea pigs when they are neither from Guinea nor are they pigs?
- Why don't sheep shrink when it rains?
- Why is it that only pigs and humans can get sunburn?
- Why is it that the first thing we try to do after killing a pig is to cure it?

Some people claim that left over, cut onions should not be used the next day, because they become highly poisonous because of bacteria growth, turn toxic and lead to adverse stomach infections. The message is not a fact, there is no scientific evidence to prove this claim.

A hotel guest called the front desk and said, "Send someone from maintenance to my room. My wife and I are having an argument and she says she's going to jump out the window." The desk clerk said, "I'm sorry, sir, but that's a personal matter." The man replied, "No, it's a maintenance matter! I can't get the damned window open!"

The flower of the Calla lily can be 8 feet high and 12 feet wide. It is grown in Sumatra.

When a physician remarked on a new patient's extraordinarily ruddy complexion, he said, "High blood pressure, Doc. It comes from my family."

"Your mother's side or your father's?" I asked.

"Neither," he replied. "It's from my wife's family."

"Oh, come now," I said. "How could your wife's family give you high blood pressure?"

He sighed. "You oughta meet 'em sometime, Doc!"

My Parents had not been out together in quite some time. One Saturday, as Mom was finishing the dinner dishes, my father stepped up behind her.

"Would you like to go out, girl?" he asked.

Not even turning around, my mother quickly replied, "Oh, yes, I'd love to!" They had a wonderful evening, and it wasn't until the end of it that Dad confessed.

His question had actually been directed to the family dog, lying near Mom's feet on the kitchen floor.

There's a little old Christian lady living next door to an atheist. Every morning the lady comes out onto her front porch and shouts "Praise the Lord!"

The atheist yells back, "There is no God".

She does this every morning with the same result. As time goes on, the lady runs into financial difficulties and has trouble buying food. She goes out onto the porch and asks God for help with groceries, then says "Praise the Lord".

The next morning she goes out onto the porch and there's the groceries she asked for, and of course, she shouts "Praise the Lord!!!!".

The atheist jumps out from behind a bush and says, "Ha, I bought those groceries - there is no God".

The lady looks at him and smiles, she shouts "Praise the Lord, not only did you provide for me Lord, you made Satan pay for the groceries!!!"

Two guys are walking down the street when a mugger approaches them and demands their money. They both grudgingly pull out their wallets and begin taking out their cash. Just then one guy turns to the other and hands him a bill. "Here's that $20 I owe you," he says.

The penguin is the only bird that can swim, but not fly. It is also the only bird that walks upright.

A wise old farmer went to town to buy a pickup truck that he saw advertised in the paper for a certain price. After telling the salesman which truck he wanted, they sat down to do the paperwork. When the salesman handed the farmer the bill, and the farmer exclaimed, "This isn't the price I saw!"

The salesman went on to tell the farmer how he was getting extras such as power brakes, power windows, special tires etc. and that was what raised the price up. The farmer needed the truck badly, paid the price and went home.

A few months later, the salesman called up the farmer and said, "My son is in 4-H and he needs a cow for a project. Do you have any for sale?"

The farmer said, "Yes, I have a few cows, and I would sell for $500.00 a piece. Come look at them and take your pick."

The salesman and his son appeared a short while later and after spending a few hours in the field checking out all the cows the two decided on one and the salesman proceeded to write out a check for $500.00.

The farmer said, "Now, wait a minute, that's not the final price of the cow. You're getting extras with it and you have to pay for that too."

"What extras?" asked the salesman.

The farmer then handed him the following list:

BASIC COW.....	$500.00
Two tone exterior.....	$45.00
Extra stomach.....	$75.00
Product storing equipment.....	$60.00
Straw compartment.....	$120.00
4 Spigots @$10 ea.....	$40.00

In Syria, Christmas gifts are distributed by one of the Wise Men's camels. The gift-giving camel is said to have been the smallest one in the Wise Men's caravan.

In the Victorian era, it was a thing to send "Vinegar" or Hate valentines anonymously to people you disliked. They were often incredibly harsh, and some even suggested the recipient go kill themselves.

Ford once created a vehicle made out of plant materials. Ford's 1941 biological car was made of soybean, wheat, hemp, flax and ramie fibres in a soy-based phenolic resin. It weighed 1,000 pounds less than a steel car.

The Cola gets its name from the kola nut, a caffeine-containing fruit of the kola tree, which is used as a flavouring ingredient in beverages.

Q: Why did the turkey cross the road?

A: To prove he wasn't chicken!
